

Why DEF system tampering is a bad idea

Modifying or removing emissions control systems degrades air quality, voids the equipment's warranty and is illegal in Canada and the U.S. Keeping DEF at the manufacturer's settings protects the environment, preserves your warranty and respects the law.

It's your equipment.
It's your risk.
It's your decision.

For more information, please contact your local equipment dealer.